

With deep sorrow we regret to inform you that our council Member and former President of the Botanical Society of Bengal, Professor Nanda Dulal Paria left for his heavenly abode on 14.01.2023. His passing away is an irreparable loss for the Society and botanical community at large. His long association with the Botanical Society of Bengal, University of Calcutta and countless contributions and advices for the betterment of the society is beyond words to express our gratitude and sadness at the sudden demise of Professor N. D. Paria.

May his soul rest in eternal Peace.

We on behalf of the Botanical Society of Bengal, University of Calcutta express our deepest condolences to his family members.

Ashalata D'Rozario

Secretary,

Botanical Society of Bengal,

University of Calcutta